For anyone who has been to Lendrick Muir before, there are some words that will help you remember... mud...talent...gunge...bullseye...edible grubbs... For anyone who has never been, don't let those words put you off! We will have a huge amount of fun involving some of the above, plus inflatable fun, crafts, worship, outdoor games, indoor games, group discussions, a LOT of home baking and a LOT of fun... if you want to know more, come along and find out for yourself.

THE SMALL PRINT YOU NEED TO KNOW

LENDRICK MUIR is a well-equipped residential holiday centre near Kinross. Five, owned and run by Scripture Union Scotland. Accommodation is dormitory style, with single beds and bunks. All sheets and duvet covers are provided.

The Centre offers a wide range of outdoor activities, which are supervised and run by qualified staff. In addition the St Mungo's' team will be offering a programme of games and workshops as well as opportunities to explore the Christian faith through teaching, worship and prayer. This makes for an exciting and action packed weekend of fun and friendship.

Children will be cared for in small groups with a high ratio of adults to children. All activities will be supervised. There will be a designated person responsible for First Aid and the event is covered by St Mungo's insurance.

Lendrick Muir operates within a comprehensive framework of policy and practice as laid down in SU's Activities Health and Safety documentation.
